

December 11, 2017

Dear Pastors and Delegates:

A special session of the Eastern Regional Conference is planned for Saturday, January 13, 2018, beginning at 9:00 a.m. at the Carlisle First Church of God. As we begin to implement the new Strategic Plan there are a couple items that need to be discussed. First, we want to explain how the current constitution supports the structural changes we are moving toward. We would also like to outline some of the progress that has been made as the plan goes into action and highlight opportunities that you may want to consider participating in moving forward. In addition, we want to give you the opportunity to ask any questions you may have about the plan.

While we are together we will also be circulating a questionnaire seeking your input on qualities we should look for in our next Executive Director. We hope to provide you with a time line for the search process as we seek to identify our next leader.

Enclosed you will find a roster from the 2017 Conference sessions. Please take a moment to confirm that your delegates are able to be in attendance by filling out the postage paid return card included with this mailing. If there are changes to your delegation, you may indicate this by placing an asterisk next to the name of the new delegates. Please return this registration card by December 18, 2017.

We encourage you to come early (8:00 – 9:00 a.m.) for registration and fellowship prior to the meeting. Please continue to be in prayer for the ERC as together we seek to advance the cause of the Kingdom together.

Yours in Christ,

James W. Moss, Jr.,
Interim Executive Director
